SAINT GERMAIN'S DIVINE COMPLEMENT, LADY MASTER PORTIA

WHO IS LADY MASTER PORTIA?

Ascended Lady Master Portia, also known as "The Goddess of Justice" and "The Goddess of Opportunity", represents divine justice and opportunity for this planet. Opportunity has been defined as: The Open Portal to Unity. Justice has been spiritually described as love's great opportunity to right all wrong and balance life's misqualified energies. Because Portia's action is that of balance, her symbol is the scale of justice.

THE SCALES OF JUSTICE

According to Mark and Elizabeth Prophet:

"In this hour of reckoning comes the Angel of Opportunity sent forth by Portia, the Goddess of Justice. This angel is the mercy of the law and of the karma of the seven last plagues. And opportunity is a scroll declaring the independence of the souls of Terra rarified by the saints above and below." (From "Pearls of Wisdom", 1975, vol. 18, number 17, p 191; and "Pearls of Wisdom", 1975, vol. 18, number 6, pp 23-25, by Mark and Elizabeth C. Prophet, Summit University Press, CA. This is copyright material from Summit Lighthouse, P. O. Box 5000, Corwin Springs, MT 59039.)

During Portia's last lifetime on Earth, she was a lawyer who served on the Council of Law. She made her ascension with one of the early lifewaves, before evil was introduced on Earth. She remained in the great silence of the inner spheres for many millennia, coming forth for the first time in 1939. She came to assist her divine complement, Ascended Master Saint Germain, while he was working with Mr. Ballard, founder of the Saint Germain I Am Foundation.

When she returned to Earth, she set Cosmic Justice into action. She can now be called on to help others with their legal actions. She knew that the scales of justice had to be balanced in preparation for the emerging Golden Age of Aquarius. This is the purpose of the Violet Flame vials of purification, spoken of in the Book of Revelation, that are being held at Archangel Zadkiel's Etheric Retreat over Cuba.

As the embodiment of mercy and representative of the Violet Ray, Portia became one of the members of the Karmic Board. In 1954, she was chosen as their spokesman, taking over the position that had been held by Kuan Yin. She will hold this position for 2,160 years, the beginning of the next era, the Age of Capricorn. Due to her qualities of mercy, justice and opportunity, there is much more freedom now than there was before she became the spokesman.

Portia's Etheric Retreat, where she focuses the Flame of Justice, is over Ghana, Africa. The Elohim of the Violet Ray, Arcturus and Victoria, focus the Freedom Flame in Luanda, Angola, just to the south of Ghana. In Accra, the capital of Ghana, there is a monument known as the "Freedom and Justice Arch". It serves as an outer arc of the inner retreat flames of Portia and Arcturus. Her electronic pattern is the scales of justice; her keynote is the "Rakoczy March".

WHAT IS JUSTICE?

Portia, the Goddess of Justice, said in April, 1954:

"The Law of Cosmic Justice is that no soul can be denied opportunity when it asks for it. We have given you opportunity which you accepted. Hence, the service which has been rendered to those who have passed on, and those who are coming into embodiment, is proof of what opportunity can do when it is accepted." (From "Law of Life and Teachings by Divine Beings", Book 2, p 322, by A. D. K. Luk. This is copyright material from A. D. K. Luk Publications, P. O. Box 530035, St. Petersburg, FL 33747.)

Portia, the open portal to unity, works under the influence of Libra to balance the scales of justice for mankind. Knowing there is no freedom without justice, she serves on the Karmic Board to help balance karma, both individual and planetary. She urges us to be just to others and warns against untruth. Knowing that imbalance is destroyed by the flame of truth, her mercy mixed with justice weaves a garland around the altar of truth.

Her scales of justice help us to achieve mastery over our four elements and to strike a balance between our masculine and feminine rays, thereby blending the yin/yang of creation. Because justice is the pivot point between thought and feeling, she helps us to avoid being undone by twisted thoughts and actions. She also offers us opportunity, assuring us that no one can be denied opportunity when he asks for it.

TAROT CARD REPRESENTING JUSTICE:

The quality of justice is represented in the tarot card deck as a woman sitting on a throne with a sword in one hand and a scale of justice in the other. She is the lawgiver, ruled by the astrological sign of Libra. She symbolizes the fact that only balanced forces can endure; that imbalance is destroyed by the sword of truth. She is often depicted with her long hair in a braid that is capable of strangling like a hangman's knot. This symbolizes that one can be undone by his own twisted thoughts and actions. Justice is also depicted as being blindfolded or has her eyes closed so she will not be influenced by outer appearances. She looks only upon the intentions of the heart.

BALANCING THE SCALES OF JUSTICE:

PORTIA BLINDFOLDED,
BALANCING THE SCALES OF JUSTICE

In 1976, Portia related:

"My lovely, precious light workers. Good evening. I am the Ascended Lady Master Portia, known as the Goddess of Justice. . . . Perhaps you have seen my symbol which is on the court houses, especially in the United States of America. I know it is also used in other countries. If you have seen this symbol, you know that as I am depicted there, holding the scale, that it means justice and balance, and this is what I try to maintain. My work is very, very heavy, because at this time in your world there is much injustice. I regret to tell you this, but there is much injustice because of the grafts, the political occurrences throughout the world. In general the scales have been tipped too far one way, in most instances.

"I was the one who prompted the hearts of the leaders to form a way of justice in the court rooms, and I am proud to say that when this was formulated and put into practice, it was a very large step forward in creating justice, equality among people; because when the juries were formed it gave the people an opportunity to take part in helping to judge the right and the wrong, the just or the injustice, of a case. I am very happy to tell you of this tonight, for had it not been for the jury system, there would be much more injustice practiced in your world.

"The scales represent justice, balance, equality, and when they are tipped too far one way or the other, there is not the balance, or the harmony, or the justice, which should be meted out to those who are being judged. So it is our job, and I say ours, because I have many helpers. We are all over the world trying to help this situation. Although we are not able to control it completely, we have done much toward this achievement. . . .

"Blessed ones, try to remember what the scales mean, and it is paramount that you should weigh every item, every problem you should ever have in your lifetime. It is so important that you weigh these problems, to be certain that the scale becomes as balanced as possible. I know that it is not always possible to be balanced, dear ones, but try to make it as much so as you can. I am offering my services to all of you who may need them and I will help you, if you will call upon me. . . I know that the problems of the world today are very great, and all of you have them. Let me help you I shall be waiting for your call, because this is part of my work, not only in the United States of America, but all over the world.

"When I had an earth life, a very long time ago, I lived it as a lawyer. In those days it was not actually accepted, for a woman to become a lawyer. I did it in such a manner that I counseled with people to help them in this way, but actually I was known as a counselor at law. I am still performing this duty and I will help all of you. . . We must have harmony, peace, and justice throughout the world!

"Beloved ones, thank you for letting me be with you tonight, and letting me speak to you. It has been such a joy, and I hope that I shall see you beyond sleep, or that you will contact me telepathically to let me know of your problems. With love I will administer to you." (Message received through Samuel and Ida "White Dove" Partridge, Dec. 8, 1976. From "A Spiritual Bouquet From Ascended Lady Masters", Golden Sierra Printing, 1978, pp 8-12.)

WHAT IS OPPORTUNITY?

Concerning opportunity, Portia says, through Geraldine Innocenti, in February, 1955:

"Many a salty tear has been shed; many have experienced the feeling of deep remorse that has risen within the soul when Opportunity to serve has fled. In your Earth plane, there are those you have either neglected or ignored and who are no longer with you. How often you have wished that you had opportunity again to do for them the little things that would have made life easier, to have said the kind words, to have given them the encouragement, to have provided some comfort, perhaps of a small nature, that would have given the loved one an easier pathway through the world of form. Of all sad words and tongue and pen, the saddest of all is: 'It might have been.'

"Beloved ones, today is your day of opportunity!

Today you have a beating heart; beautiful primal life is given to you. You awaken each morning with that life. You have enough knowledge of the law as we individually have been able to give to you and each of you have certain momentums of good in your causal body; certain understanding, certain momentums of healing.

"You have opportunity without limit to assist in the cosmic momentum of each hour. Mankind always seems to look either backward into the glorious yesterday or forward into the shining tomorrow. They say 'If I had lived in that era when that dispensation of Jesus Christ was coming to its height, I would have made things easier for that family,' or they look forward into the tomorrow and say, 'When I have developed and matured my consciousness and placed my world in order and when I have done one thing or another, then I shall consecrate the balance of my life to God.'

"Yesterday is gone and most of us who have lived in the yesterday, repeat the patterns again today. Tomorrow often never comes. The eternal now is that which is at hand, that which is yours to serve through the use of life. Now is the opportunity that stands before you. As our beloved sister has written 'Coming in many disguises, not always blazing her light; only vibration apprises what's to be done that is right.' Do you understand?

"Be alert for opportunity. Opportunity knocks at your door to help your fellow men, to help mankind at large, to help my beloved Saint Germain in this great endeavor which has occupied his heart, his spirit, and his prayers for countless centuries. Each day is filled with the gifts of opportunity, and opportunity shall ever remain in this universe. There is always opportunity for a beating heart to progress to fulfillment. There was never a consciousness when it voluntarily desires within itself to go forward, who is not given full opportunity for that progress." ("Bridge to Spiritual Freedom Journal, February, 1955; reprinted by Sherry Binkleman at mastersinthemaking.com.)

PORTIA'S WORK WITH OTHER GREAT BEINGS:

As Chohan of Violet Ray, with Saint Germain, she works to transmute all things less than the light. What a dynamic duo she and Saint Germain make, and how fortunate we are to have them as Directors for the Aquarian Age.

In addition to this, Portia also works with the great cosmic being, Cosmos, who came to Earth in 1939 to release the cosmic light in two of the "Five Secret Rays". In an effort to change the activities of the law and bring forth the eighth and ninth rays, Cosmos anchored the masculine ray to the North Pole; the feminine ray to the South Pole. His coming changed the activity of the laws for Earth. Cosmos, Portia and Saint Germain form a three-fold action for the Aquarian Age.

Portia also works with Gautama Buddha, Lord of the World, as well as with Pelleur, the directing intelligence of the activities in the center of the Earth. Pelleur helps those in the Inner Earth and balances the energies at the center of the Earth. (Because Buddha's quality is also balance, Portia blends with them perfectly, thus forming another three-fold action.

PORTIA'S WORK WITH MOTHER MARY:

In 1954, Portia also assumed the position of "Queen of Heaven" from Mother Mary, who had held that office for the past 2,000 years of the Piscean Age. Mary will now assume a different, and more-elevated, position, for even the Divine Beings are evolving.

When Portia took over as "Queen of Heaven", or "Mother of the Earth", Mother Mary, in her great compassion for mankind, asked this blessing for the incoming souls:

"There are several hundred million souls about to embody this year (1954), many of them with karma of great weight. It is my joy and privilege to petition the council on behalf of every lifestream who is to embody this year. . . . To give them garments that they could occupy with ease and peace, and sensitive to their own Christ Selves, and give them opportunity, each one. I ask this as my last gift as I close my reign, and Portia becomes the Queen of Heaven." Mother Mary, June 29, 1954. (From "Law of Life and Teachings by Divine Beings", Book 2, pp 461-462, by A. D. K. Luk.)

When Mother Mary asked this favor of the Karmic Board, Portia said opportunity was in her hands, and that opportunity would allow Mary's request to be granted. Portia then suggested that Mary call to Archangel Gabriel for his flame to enter the consciousness of every woman with child and all about to conceive. She suggested Mary's coupling her immaculate concept and holding that pattern in her mind and that purity in her feelings.

Mary responded that Gabriel would stand beside every woman who has conceived and every potential one, and that they would direct that concept into the mind. Then Mary asked if something could be done about the elemental substance the soul had earned. Portia replied that the Lord Maha Chohan, who holds the office of the Holy Spirit and is the great intelligence governing all elemental life, would no doubt command that life back into its purity. "Since he gives the first breath," she said, "ask his assistance at the time of conception rather than at birth. Coupled with Saint Germain's Fire, let us see what can be done." As Queen of Heaven and Mother of the Earth, a role assumed from Mother Mary, Portia helps all incoming souls. (From "Law of Life and Teachings by Divine Beings", Book 2, pp 465-467, by A. D. K. Luk.)

LACK OF ATTENTION GIVEN TO THE GODDESS ROLES:

The Goddess of Justice (Portia), the Goddess of Truth, and the Goddess of Purity, three of the most magnificent beings in heaven, get very little magnetization from the earth plane, because people are afraid of justice, truth and purity. Portia stated in June of 1959:

"Now, divine justice is not too popular a subject and, as a matter of fact, the presence of neither the Goddess of Purity nor myself is too much called for or sought after among mankind. Our lovely sister of light, Kuan Yin (Goddess of Mercy) is called into action here much more often than me, for mercy makes one feel so comfortable and brings a sweet sense of forgiveness and release. This of course is because of the feeling within it of the freeing power of the Violet Transmuting Flame.

"Oh beloved ones, mankind is so bent on having justice for themselves, but how many are anxiously willing to give justice to life? And where should justice be given first? Should it not be given to the most important being in the universe to each lifestream - his own beloved I Am Presence, the source of his life? Has it been really just - for ages, mind you, for that outer self so boldly to abscond with the energies of that Presence (which is its very own life) - then carelessly to use that life as though it were the most common and easily obtained thing in existence? The average individual imposes upon this glorious God-life just 'hit or miss' anything and everything that discordant outer self desires to think, feel, say or do." (Message given through Geraldine Innocenti, divine complement of Ascended Master Morya, and founder of Bridge to Spiritual Freedom. Reprinted by Ascended Master's Research Center; AscendedMaster.ac.)

In another dictated message, Portia says in 2003:

"There is a lot occurring these days with regard to justice, with regard to court cases, judges and all that is comprised of the justice system on Earth. This system, however, needs revising. I know and appreciate the fact that my likeness and the balance scales is upon many courthouses and it is true that my likeness represents justice. However, what has occurred is, dear ones, that justice has not been carried out as to the Constitution of the United States and also, I can say, of many countries in the world, it has not been carried out in the name of freedom and the oneness of people on the planet. In the name of fairness to all, this needs revision and it needs revision now!

"It is true that a lot has happened in the courts to prepare countries and banking institutions and people for the coming changes. A lot of work has been done by many dedicated people, yet there had to be a cleaning of the closet there as well in order to keep things in the light.

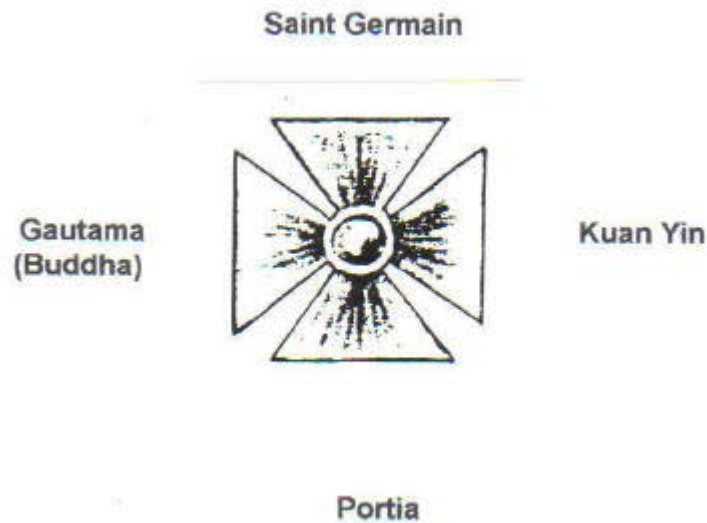

"I am truly sending forth a red flag to those who work in the Justice Departments. It is time to stop manipulating people! It is time to bring love into the decisions of the court! It is time to bring the rightness of the Constitution into the courts! I am speaking, at this time, not only for myself but also as a spokesperson because I am dedicated to justice. There are many in spirit who are wishing changes in the justice system and we are working together from our perspective to assist with these changes."
(Message received by Ariana Sheran, October 11, 2003; "Coping With Vibrational Changes", p 1; Cloverleafconnection.ca.)

PORTIA'S WORKS WITH SAINT GERMAIN TO PREPARE FOR THE AQUARIAN AGE:

Two weeks after the Coronation of Saint Germain and Portia as Directors for the Aquarian Age, Saint Germain described the formation of the etheric temple above Transylvania.

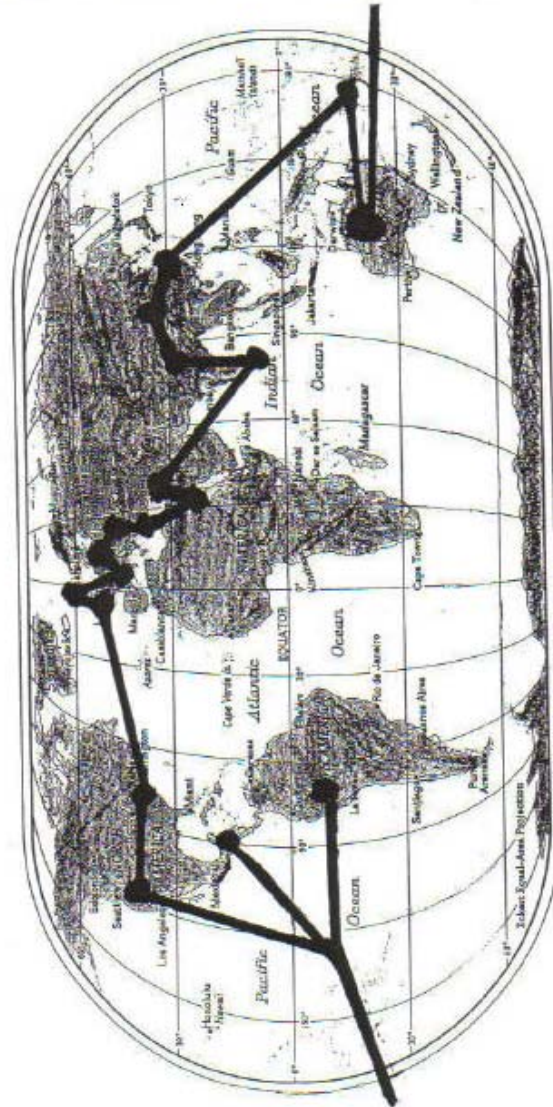

"We have twelve masters at Transylvania, and tonight we have many thousands. Thus the cosmic activity and the human expand hand in hand. Above the great focus of the Freedom Flame, the builders of form have crated a magnificent Violet Flame Temple, and they will allow it to remain as a permanent focus in the lower atmosphere which will be very beneficial to Europe and the conditions of Asia Minor. It is formed like a Maltese Cross in honor of my lifestream. The assembly is all seated facing the center where the cross beam and the length beam meet. The altar is a three-tiered white marble circle in that center. Lord Zadkiel and beloved Amethyst have taken the responsibility of energizing and drawing the Freedom Flame from the heart of the flame room in the Transylvanian retreat into this glorious temple of light. The members of the hierarchy are clothed in varying hues of purple according to their ranks. Lord Sanat Kumara and those of highest rank are in the deep royal purple and the lesser members of the brotherhood are in the lighter hues of purple and violet to the moss pinks at the very end of the cross. I will stand at the head of the cross, beloved Goddess of Justice (Portia) at its foot, beloved Lord Gautama (Buddha) at the right and Kuan Yin at the left. We will form the four square of the violet ray.

"From Transylvania we will send our beam directly to Pallas Athena and Hilarion over Crete, [to follow this radiation, see map on next page] who will in turn direct it to the retreat at Luxor, then to the Resurrection Temple, to Ceylon, Kashmir, Shamballa, Temple of Mercy, Suva, Australia, then blazing out in a three-fold action, enter South, Central, and North America. The students direct it from sanctuary to sanctuary across America and those on the East Coast direct it to England and Scotland, and it returns again through the retreat in France and through Germany to us (Transylvania). It is a magnificent opportunity to carry the Flame of Freedom, the Flame of Transmutation, the Flame of Purification into the consciousness of all mankind." Saint Germain, May 15, 1954, ("Law of Life and Teachings by Divine Beings", Book 2, p 797, by A. D. K. Luk.)

GREAT BEINGS STAND AT SIDES OF THE MALTESE CROSS

FREEDOM FLAME EXPANDING TO THE SPECIFIC AREAS
 Doesn't it look like a bolt of lightning flashing?

After this tremendous amount of preparation--expanding the Freedom Flame and creating the etheric temple over Transylvania, a portion of the flame was then transferred to the Western Hemispheres. In another message Saint Germain described this process:

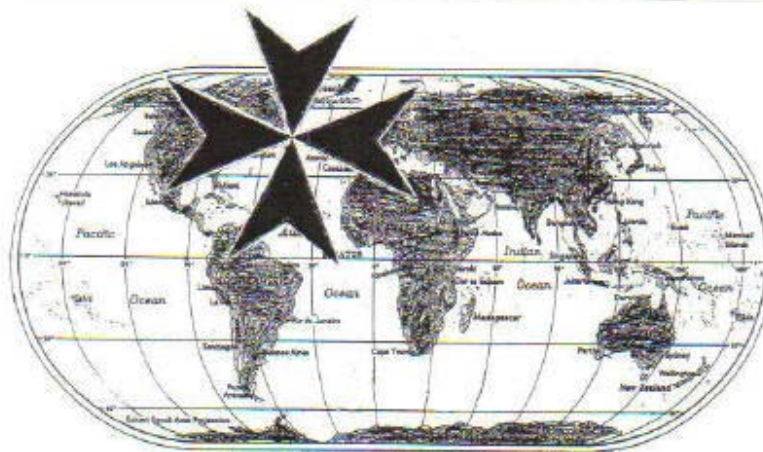

"When I chose then to draw forth the Freedom Flame, it took a long time for me to again bring it into the physical appearance world and anchor it within the heart of the magnificent retreat in Transylvania.

"Now because of the coming of the seventh root race, I have asked the Karmic Board for the privilege of bringing that concentrate into the Western Hemisphere to render the service, that it may prepare the lower atmosphere of the Earth for those lifestreams who will embody.

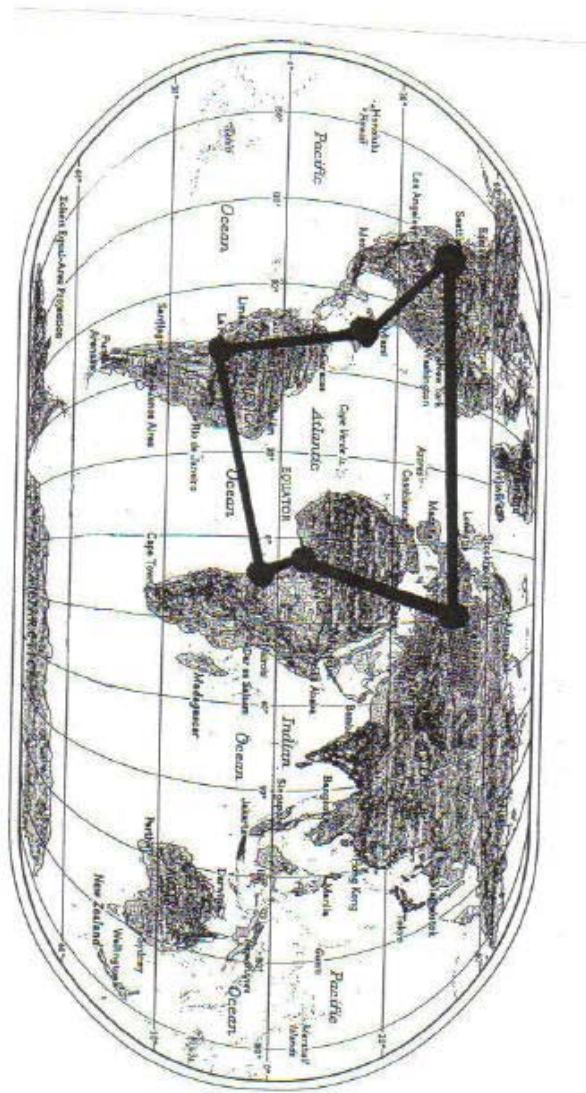

"In Transylvania tonight are gathered all the beings and powers that have loved and served freedom for many ages. Over the retreat is the great amphitheater made of the most exquisite purple marble-like substance, studded with amethysts. It is large enough to accommodate the vast numbers of visitors from the various realms. Standing as the presiding master is my divine friend, the Great Divine Director who was my guru, my guide, and my counsel for many ages. With him stands the Goddess of Justice (Portia). Here in the Western Hemisphere, bridging the Atlantic Ocean, stand the Goddess of Mercy (Kuan Yin) and myself. Over your breath tonight comes the concentrate and the power of the Freedom Flame.

You will note in the following map that the areas where the Violet Flame are anchored form somewhat of a framework around old Atlantis, that is soon to rise again. This shows us quite clearly that the impetus of the new golden Age of Aquarius, which comes under the influence of the violet ray and is directed by the violet ray masters, Saint Germain and Portia, will center in the Western rather than the Eastern Hemisphere. The frequency of the Western Hemisphere is feminine, while the Eastern Hemisphere is masculine. The Aquarian Age emphasis is on the feminine, hence the importance of the different Goddesses and the Mother Ray.

PORTIA'S RELATIONSHIP WITH SAINT GERMAIN:

Portia also serves with Saint Germain as Chohan of the Violet Ray and director of the Aquarian Age. In one of Saint Germain's messages, he said concerning his partner, Portia:

"This morning, in her cosmic activity, beloved Portia as representative and spokesman of the Karmic Board, asked me if I had charted the heavens as of today. Her question was enough to send me immediately to see what was ahead."

Later, in the same message, he referred to her lovingly:

"A handful of men in the heart of Philadelphia not so long ago risked life, property, and fortune to call forth the independence of this nation, this nation which is the heart of the planet and the hope of the world and which is as much a part of my beating heart as is Portia my own beloved." (Copyright material from "Law of Life and Teachings by Divine Beings," Book 2, pp 383-384, A. D. K. Luk.)

On another occasion, Saint Germain related:

"The equation of living on Terra can be stated: The law, plus you, plus karma and dharma equals the divine plan manifest as circumstance in time and space. This equation is balanced by the handmaid of Freedom [Portia] whose name is Opportunity. (Copyright material from "Pearls of Wisdom, Vol. 18, number 32, p 160, by Mark and Elizabeth C. Prophet.)

In a dictated message from Portia, she affectionately calls her mate by the pet name, "Germain", rather than Saint Germain. She says:

"In the golden age, which you are striving toward, there will be enough money for all. There will be enough security. There will be enough hope. There will be enough joy for all to partake in, so this is +another visualization I would like you to make and to keep in your meditations. It is a visualization of the Earth surrounded in gold, a beautiful golden color, which symbolizes the golden age. This age is in prophecy. This age is coming to your planet. We are assisting in pushing this forth from the finer dimensions. We are succeeding; your vibrations are raising; it is all happening, dear ones. It happens gradually, it happens almost imperceptibly at times, little by little, and so I cannot say all this will change tomorrow or next week. That is why the visualizations I've given you will help to push this forward.

"Share these visualizations with others because the more people who are ready and waiting for the golden age to be present on your planet, then the faster it will occur, dear ones. When that happens and you are well into the golden age, you will find that you, just like Germain, will be popping around the planet! Now please don't think I'm disrespectful when I call Germain by that single name. That is indeed, my pet name for him and he knows it. Our love goes to you. We are both working towards bringing your planet's vibrations up so you will be able to enjoy the golden age soon. There are other ascended masters and there are other cosmic teachers who are doing the same thing. There are hundreds of millions of spiritual beings who are helping. This includes those in the spirit world connected with your planet. They also include beings from other planets and other star systems. There are many interested beings and people who are watching what is occurring on Earth with joy, with concern and with an attitude of assisting."

("Coping With Vibrational Changes," October 11, 2003, p 3. Copyright message received by Ariana Sheran at: cloverleafconnection.ca.)

In another message, Portia calls him "Francis", his name during his lifetime as Sir Francis Bacon, and Prince Francis Rakoczy. She relates:

"As you know divine justice and God-freedom are quite inseparable and so it is indeed the grateful joy of my lifestream to be the divine complement of my adored and adorable 'Francis' (which name means 'Freedom' and by which he is known at inner levels, but better known to his chelas in the world of form as Saint Germain, which means 'Holy Brother') and is so symbolical of the one who has given so much of himself to the bringing forth, sustaining, and expanding on earth world brotherhood, uniting the Christ Natures of all everywhere.

"May I very kindly and yet truthfully say that it is really not within the understanding of an unascended being to be able either to cognize intellectually or feel emotionally, the depths and breadths of our love for all of God's Creation - and more particularly for each of you who has given so much of that which makes up your physical existence here - your time, attention, energy and financial substance - into the 'Cause of Freedom'. For the eternal victory of this 'cause' on Earth your beloved Saint Germain (Francis) really 'lives, moves, and has his being.' His steadfast concentration to this purpose all through the ages has been and still is almost unbelievable - even to us - and it is most beautiful to behold!

"Now, beloved gracious readers - I have just told you of my (and our) combined love for you individually and collectively. Therefore, whenever you think of me as Portia, Goddess of Justice, will you let my love draw you very close to me, thus dissolving from your world all fear of divine justice? You know 'Perfect Love casts out Fear', and I would like us to be close heart-friends - if you are willing." (From Ascended Master's Research Center at AscendedMaster.ac. This message is a reprint of one that was received in June, 1959, through Geraldine Innocenti.

PORTIA BALANCES THE MASCULINE AND FEMININE FLAMES:

According to Mark and Elizabeth C. Prophet:

"She [Portia] teaches mankind to hold the balance of the Flame of the Christ in the four lower bodies through mastery over the four elements. Since justice is the pivotal point between thought and feeling, her balance is between the creative polarities of the masculine and feminine rays of the Deity, or between the yin and yang of creation." (From "the Masters and Their Retreats," p 289. This material was copyrighted by Summit University Press, MT in 2003.)

In another message from Portia, given in July, 1980, she says:

"Saint Germain has asked me to address you on this day dedicated to you who keep the Flame of Life on Terra. You have called me Portia. You have welcomed me. And so I am come into your very midst with legions of my bands who have not thus descended into the lower octaves of earth for millennia untold. I have come to speak to you of America and of the path of freedom.

"The love which my beloved Saint Germain bears for this land and this people can hardly be told, yet it is known of angels who adore him for his immaculate concept and for his perseverance with a sometimes obstinate, wayward, and even dense, people. Now we have come, we five [Portia, Nada, Pallas Athena, Goddess of Liberty, and Kuan Yin], delivering a path for the true liberation of woman and of the soul. Many ascended lady masters have joined us in a council of light for the feminine ray.

"We are delighted to tell you that we have been meeting for many weeks, laying plans for the land and for the raising up of the Mother Flame as the kundalini fire in the very midst of her divers yet unified peoples. . . .

"I stretch forth my hand. I decree cosmic justice. It is justice that you should ensoul and enflame a passion of freedom! It is justice that you should call forth the judgment of injustice and the unjust who refuse to extend mercy toward every part of life. It is justice that the children of the light should have greater opportunity and that the fallen ones should have less. The coming of justice is the balancing of the scales. Thus, my beloved, understand the great acceleration of the Holy Spirit as the very line of the hierarchy of Libra and its initiations.

"I am Portia, never blind to justice or injustice. For by the all-seeing eye of God, both are isolated and brought to the fiery trial. We come for action, for organization for administration of the organization of the Great White Brotherhood on earth. We enlist you as leaders and followers of our light. We enlist you in the common cause, for we have said before Gautama Buddha at the Royal Teton this very week: 'We pledge our all for the saving of America, for without the saving of this nation, no other can survive.'

"And thus we repeat the call of Saint Germain to this nation and to all nations of the earth. Save America and survive! Cease your hatred and condemnation, your belittlement, and even your evident disgust! For this nation, despite her leaders, rather than because of them, shall rise and rise again. And upon that rising light of ascension's flame in her very midst, your own future depends. . . . I rejoice to be in the heart of every chela of Saint Germain." (Reprinted by Greatdreams.com/ascendedmasters.htm.)

RAISING THE STANDARD FOR WOMEN:

In a channeled message, Portia stated:

"Because there are a lot of changes expected on the Earth with regard to business, banking, and personal security, I wanted to speak with you about the woman's part in their own particular partnerships in the world. It has been traditional for the male in the family to be the breadwinner and it has been traditional for the female to stay closer to home and/or work out of the home plus in the home. In any case, I feel the woman has worked harder and not had the advantage of being in control of the family finances because that has traditionally been left with the male. . . . It is time for a change with regard to this situation in the family and I know and realize that many couples have a very amenable agreement between them whereby the money situation is handled. I know also that there are many women on the streets trying to make a living in any way they can. There are children coming up who will walk soon in their mother's footsteps where there seems no alternative but to live in deplorable conditions.

"I want to raise the standard for women on your planet to the beauty, the love, and the joy that she is, to the strength and the power that is within her and to the happiness and the harmony that she brings to the home." (Message given through Ariana Sheran, October 11, 2003)

cloverleafconnection.ca.)

In a beautiful channeling from Molly Rowland, at Voice of the Gatekeepers, Portia speaks on the "Affairs of the Heart":

"I am Portia, and it is that I bring to you in this time, a greeting of love, to understand that this divine relationship that I have with the Master Saint Germain is not a relationship that human beings would necessarily understand. For they would say, here is a man and here is a woman, and they are going through all of their conflicts to have a relationship. And yet it is in our places that energy merges, and therefore we share ideas by merging; we share love by merging; we share our dreams by merging; and we merge our energies. I may send a thought, a bubble of light, and my beloved sends a thought, a bubble of light, and those two bubbles join together and we delight in the experience of the energy shared. For it is not that we have lost ourselves by giving our ideas but that we have merged our ideas together, therefore, we can find in that energy the highest and best of what we have shared with each other, a blending of how it would go forward, rather than my idea is better, or you have no thoughts that are worthy, which so often occurs in relationship in this place. Or that man has a certain role to play and woman has a certain role to play, and in these times, up to this time, the woman's role has been established as the support of the man, to look good, to say the right thing, to care for his needs, to be there for him, but not necessarily to be who she is.

"In the places of mastery, we are very clear who we are. There is no doubt who we are, and therefore, we are not in conflict in our relationships with each other. We find a place of mutual understanding, of loving involvement and harmony. It isn't about having to give up a dream, an idea. It is about discovering new aspects, greater understanding, a more loving allowance of what we would bring about.

"I am indeed the divine counterpart of the Master Saint Germain, and yet I do not engage myself in what the world would call wifely duties. I am not at his beck and call when he says do this, don't do that, fulfill this task, go and speak to these people in my name, because that is not how it functions in these places.

"That I am an emissary of light, yes, but then as beloved masters, we are all emissaries of light. I am not a great emissary, but I am a teacher of justice and balance, and yet the justice that I would teach would be the harmonious interaction of all aspects of any situation rather than because you have lived the right way, done the right thing, thought the right things, said the right things, then you are worthy of the justice, and they who have not measured up will be punished. That is an old order of separation, and God never created in that way. Humanity created those thoughts, those beliefs for this game of separation.

"I stand equally with my beloved. I am divine counterpart, and we look upon each other in a sense of respect, and awe, and love of what each one of us can bring to the relationship for the other. And so it is, we are ONE. We are two aspects of the same soul. I present myself to you as woman, and yet in the beginning when this soul separated, I was the masculine aspect. And my beloved, who presents himself now in these times to you as a man, was the feminine aspect. And so as we return together in these times, showing you about at-one-ment, we return with what you might call the cross polarity. So that I exhibit as a whole, a woman, but of masculine nature, and he exhibits as a whole a man, but of feminine nature, and that those two aspects blend to create a oneness, a holiness of god/goddess all that is, not man or woman separate, not positive or negative polarity pulling apart, but the magnetic attraction of love that makes one thing, one unit, one whole.

"And so as we would speak of 'Affairs of the Heart', perhaps I might speak to you now of the affairs of the soul, for our relationship is not only a heart relationship, it is a soul relationship. It is the spirit relationship for we are indeed ONE; two functioning as one. But not in the sense of the earth: we are now one and that means one says how it will be and the other one submits. We are now one, but I might honor that you are all that I am; that you are beloved unto us; that you are. if not in agreement, certainly in honor and respect of all that I am. And these are the gifts, the teachings that we would bring, that harmony emerges from the level self, that balance occurs when you are willing to bring all aspects of yourself together and allow yourself to be holy, one with who you are. That justice in the sense of the highest understanding is for the highest good for all concerned.

"The human mind cannot comprehend that everyone could possibly benefit from any given situation. There are those that would say, you will win and I will lose, and yet in the divine understanding, there is always brought to each one in the situation, the gifts that they will accept and the love. And so, because those gifts are brought, if they will accept them, they will receive the best from the situation no matter how it may appear to be satisfied. But if they are willing to receive those gifts, even though the outcome for the moment might appear to be in their favor, they will refuse the gifts, and as time passes they will feel the separation from their acceptance of the loss that is offered them in any given situation. It is the choice from within to accept the gifts that are brought, for it is never the situation itself, but how each entity chooses to accept that situation, receive it, to allow the best of it to come to them. And so in divine justice quite recently those that would appear like human justice to be losers, then emerge from the situation to be winner, and those that would appear to be winners, may find that they hold within their head a sense of loss.

"And so it really is not about a judgment by a king, a judge, a ruler of any kind. It isn't about the judgment that God would meet out. For God set divine justice and harmony into motion when all this was created. And humanity has, like justice, become blind to the outcome of good.

"I want to be a winner, but what does this mean to win? To win is not simply to have some judgment made in your own favor. To win is to allow yourself to overcome, and to find the seeds of good in every situation no matter what it is, and so the union of souls. For as you allow yourselves to raise your frequency, you begin to experience love on the other side of the veil as something far sweeter and more inclusive than anything that you could imagine in the limited ways of the world.

"Beyond the veil is not death, beyond the veil is surrender. Beyond the veil is not going somewhere else for were you not in love with yourself here, you more than likely would not be in love with yourself there. But in this place, in this time, as you step beyond the veil, you allow yourself the acceptance of love in this place, in this body, in this time, but it changes how your body functions. It changes the cellular structure, it changes the DNA, it changes the physical appearance, it changes the emotional nature, and therefore, as you allow yourselves in love, the heart opening, to accept the full service of all that God would give you. You simply step through the veil. You could be walking down a street and in that moment, from the Lord God of your being, make the choice in love, not intellectually, but from your soul to step through the veil. And the next step that you take will allow you to step through the veil, and you may shake your head, feel a bit different in your body, see more light, experience more color, feel more love, from one step to the next. And then it is your choice, your discipline to remain that state of grace or to step back. . . .

"You are being offered so much assistance in these times. All of us that are working with the Council of Light are working with you in this time. We are all available to you. We are all here now if you would call, we are there. Your part of it is to open, to recognize, to accept, to allow that we are here with you and willing to save you; that we are not spiritual snobs believing that because we have already entered the state of Ascension that we are in turn mama superior to our brothers and sisters who have not been. We are here to assist you along the way. Not to judge your measure but to offer you the guidance, the encouragement, the assistance, the embrace of love that is required for your overcoming . We will give you a hand up, but if you would become dead weight, when we offer the hand, then perhaps we would be required to let go. For this is a process of mutual involvement that we will lift you up as you are willing to lift you up; that we will assist you to see as you are willing to see. That we can give you all that you are willing to accept, but we cannot make you accept anything that we feel would be good for you. . . .

"We are here, heart to heart, soul to soul, mind to mind, with everyone that is on the ball in this time. You are being drenched in the essence of love. Some are soaking it up like a rain-starved desert and others are repelling it, even as they desire that it would be with them." (Message given through Molly Rowland, at "Molly Rowland Channels Saint
